Elizabeth Barnette is a Managing Director and Senior Philanthropic Strategist for the National Consulting and Advisory Practice, Nonprofit Consulting Services team at Bank of America Private Bank. In this role, Elizabeth delivers customized consulting and advisory services to endowment and foundation clients' boards of directors and senior leaders in the areas strategic planning, mission advancement, risk management, nonprofit governance, and board dynamics.

Elizabeth has over 24 years of in-depth experience working with nonprofits. Prior to joining the Nonprofit Consulting Services team, Elizabeth was a National Fiduciary Philanthropic Manager at Bank of America Private Bank managing a team of philanthropic professionals who provided planned giving, administrative, and fiduciary oversight services to more than 500 nonprofit clients including colleges and universities, churches and other religious organizations, community foundations, museums, and more.

Elizabeth has specialized expertise in planned giving, sub fund accounting, and donor advised fund administration. Before joining Bank of America Private Bank (formerly U.S. Trust), Elizabeth was the Assistant Director of Planned Giving at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, NJ where she was responsible for donor development, gift cultivation, marketing, and special events. Prior to that, Elizabeth spent several years working in the trading, risk and compliance areas of several investment management firms in New York City such as Hyperion Capital Management, Inc. and Forstmann Leff Associates. Elizabeth is a past board member for the Artists of Yardley in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. She holds the Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy designation from the American College of Financial Services. A member of the New Jersey Council of Charitable Gift Planners, Elizabeth graduated from New York University in New York City and holds a B.A. in English Literature and a B.F.A. in Theatre.

Institutional Investments & Philanthropic Solutions (also referred to as "Philanthropic Solutions" or "II&PS") is part of Bank of America Private Bank, a division of Bank of America, N.A., Member FDIC and a wholly owned subsidiary of Bank of America Corporation ("BofA Corp.").
